Scout Officials Hold Meeting Here On Tuesday Night

County Judge J. Frank Harrington and Assistant County Attorney Leon O. Moses On Court of Honor Comm.

Leaders of the Boy Scouts of America movement in this city met Tuesday night in the office of the Elliott Lumber company to lay plans for the coming year and especially for the fall and winter months. Scout Executive W. G. Echols of Dallas, one of the leaders in the Circle Ten group, composed of North Texas counties, was present and outlined the work to the local leaders.

County Judge J. Frank Harrington was elected and accepted the call to take the place of Judge A. M. Wolford, who has gone to Washington to accept a governmental position. Judge Harrington will be chairman of the Court of Honor, the body awarding badges and recognizing the work of the Scouts. Assistant County Attorney Leon O. Moses was elected a member of the Court of Honor committee of the county.

Court of Honor Oct. 19.

Plans were made for a Court of Honor to be held in the county courtroom in this city on October 19. Every man, woman and child in the county are urged to be present at this meeting and see some of the work the Scouts are doing.

At this Court of Honor, Scoutmaster Woodruff's troop of the First Presbytarian church will be officially installed. Scoutmasters Talley of Frisco, Morrison of Anna and Rev. Oliphant of Farmersville are also expected to have their troops present at this meeting. The First Baptist Troop No. 7, under the leadership of Scoutmasters Tom Greer and Leo Spillman will have a part on the program.

Splendid talks were made by Judge Harrington and Howard S. Ware, a member of the Court of Honor committee.

Mr. Echols Speaks.

Mr. Echols also made an impressive address, stressing Scouting as "the boy in the man reaching out to man in the boy." He also explained the formation of a troop which must be backed by some reliable group such as a church, a service club, such as Lions or Rotarians or some other group of men. A troop committee must be appointed by such an organization, the committee in turn appointing a Scoutmaster who selects an assistant Scoutmaster, a senior Patrol leader and four patrol leaders. The troop is divided into patrols, preferably four with each boy in the patrol to have a prescribed duty. Not more than eight boys may form a patrol.

Scouting has always been popular in McKinney and will no doubt continue to be so.

Those present at the meeting included: Scout Executive W. G. Echols of Dallas, Judge J. Frank Harrington, Howard S. Ware, Eric Nelson, Tom Greer, Mr. Burks, Leo Spillman and F. E. Woodruff.

STATE FAIR AUSPICIOUS OPENING

ALMOST 100,000 PEOPLE PRESENT ON OPENING DAY

With perfect weather, and almost 100,000 people for Opening Day, and another good day for the first Sunday, the State Fair of Texas got underway to a good start for its 47th annual exposition, which promises to be the outstanding edition of State Fair history.

Entertaining more than 1,000 newspaper people and allied industries at the Press Day celebration, the fourth estate seemed to have one of the best days that they have ever enjoyed at the "world's largest state fair." Consensus of opinion among the press people was that it was the "smoothest" running day they have ever had.

The Press Day Luncheon was held this year at the Adolphus Hotel, where a total of 633 newspaper people were entertained. Following this they were taken to the State Fair grounds, where some went to the opening performance of the Southwestern Championship Cowboy Contest in the Livestock Arena, while others visited the Southern Methodist university-El Paso college of Mines football game to the stadium, and still others visited the Beckmann-Gerety Midway.

At night all hands were on deck for the promiere of "Bitter Sweet" one of the best operettas ever presented in the huge State Fair Auditorium. With a cast number more than 100 people, and with 40 speaking parts, one of the best balanced companies ever seen in the auditorium, presented an excellent performance of the Noel Coward sensation.

Many big days and special days are planned for the remainder of the exposition, and many noted visitors will be among the guests, the most noted of which will be Vice President John N. Garner and Postmaster General Farley who will be here on Thursday, Oct. 19 for a huge outdoor meeting in the stadium.

Concessionaires, amusement proprietors, exhibitors and officials of the State Fair of Texas, look for the 47th annual exposition to be the best in years.

Mrs. A. C. Hall returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Griffith and family, in Fort Worth.

A. M. Quattlebaum of the Rhea's Mill community is a new Weekly Democrat-Gazette subscriber. He also takes the Semi-Weekly Farm News at clubbing rate. Each, a dollar paper—but both when taken at clubbing rate for only $1.50. Mr. Quattlebaum is bookkeeper for the Rhea's Mill Ginning Company. He has lived at Rhea's Mill for the past twelve years. He is a good farmer and helps at the gin during the fall months. The Rhea's Mill gin is running full time and part of nearly every night.

Prof. W. S. Smith, Hon. Billie Abernathy Red Cross Roll Call Leaders

Both Chosen by County Chapter Directors Tuesday; Field Man Attends Meeting; Roll Call, Nov. 11-30

Directors of the Collin County Red Cross Chapter, with Prof. W. S. Smith, chairman, held an important business session in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on the second floor of the Pope theater building at 4:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Among those present was R. H. Ziehm, Field Representative of the National organization, who is here helping to get a set-up for the annual Roll Call for this county, commencing on November 11 (Armistice Day) and continuing until Nov. 30 (Thanksgiving Day).

The directors persuaded the Collin Chairman to also accept the County Roll Call chairmanship outside of McKinney and then elected Attorney Billy Abernathy as McKinney City Roll Call chairman.

These two gentlemen are both public spirited and can always be counted on for cooperation in every worthwhile movement for the good of the people of our county among whom they live. Prof. Smith is a former County Schools perintendent of Public Schools who served several terms, and has the reputation of having been one of the most capabie and loyal incumbents who ever held that office.

Billy Abernathy is a young McKinney lawyer of brightest promise. He has served as president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and, for the past two years, as president of the annual Collin County Old Settlers Picnic and ex-Confederates Reunion Association. He is efficient and faithful in everything that he undertakes. He is a son of Hon. W. R. Abernathy, recognized as one of the most able and successful lawyers of North Texas. Billy Abernathy's grandfather, the late William M. Abernathy, was the first of the name of the Abernathy family of lawyers to practice at the McKinney bar. Billy's forbears, for fifty years, have been useful citizens of McKinney and leaders in civic as well as in professional and business activities. Billy's grandfather, Hon. W. M. Abertathy, was president of the State Volunteer Firemen's Association of Texas nearly forty years ago. He took a great pride in nearly civic activity and stood high among the leading lawyers of the state. His maternal grandfather, the late T. C. Perry, was a dry goods merchant. Therefore, Billy Abernathy is merely following in the footsteps of his honored ancestry in both the practice of law and business and in unfailing interest in civic affairs.

Under the leadership of Messrs. Smith and Abernathy a highly successful annual Red Cross Roll Call can be confidently expected this year.

BILLIE GEE HOPES SOON TO BE RECOVERED

ARM WAS BROKEN IN AUTO WRECK JULY 16

Billy Gee, the efficient and popular leatherworker at the George W. James implement & Hardware establishment, underwent another slight operation on his arm a few days ago. The member is still in the cast but bones are knitting together and he hopes soon to be able to return to work. While en route in an auto to Sherman on a visit on July 16, the car in which he was riding had a wreck just north of Melissa in which his left arm was broken between the elbow and shoulder. Billy Gee is greatly missed from his work bench as farmers all over Collin county have learned to depend much on him for harness repairing and much of their leather work. Billy is at the store nearly every day, but, of course, is incapacipated to follow his trade. He is always cheerful and friendly wherever you meet up with him.

EXPECT RITZ TO BE CROWDED FOR 'WOMANLESS TEA'

MALE CAST WILL GIVE PERFORMANCE THURSDAY NIGHT

Rehearsals continue for the "Womanless Tea" which will be presented this (Thursday) evening at the Ritz theater, under the sponsorship of the Social Workers of the First Methodist church. Manager Roy L. Brockman of the Ritz is also offering a splendid picture program with the "Womanless Tea," which will present twenty-five of our city's leading business and professional men.

The "production is a farce throughout, but will present to the theater-goers Thursday evening, an entertainment that is different and most amusing. Here's a chance to dodge the old humdrum routine and spend an evening in fun. "There's not a boring moment during the whole evening so you just can't afford not to attend the "Womanless Tea" and learn the latest and most up-to-the-minute etiquette to be used in having a tea party," the Social Workers announce. The ladies of our city will gather many new hints on how to be an "ideal hostess" from the members of the tea party. And such environment, too. For instance, W. W. Taylor portrays the role of Miss Mae West to perfection. There are other notables, too, but you will have to go to the show to see them.

Thrills, frills and "what have you" will feature the production, so don't miss it. It's clean, wholesome comedy—and a scream from start to finish.

FUNERAL HELD IN PLANO FOR T. J. STEENSON

JIMMIE GEIGAS POST WILL MEET MONDAY NIGHT

TO MAKE PLANS FOR NOV. 11 CELEBRATION

Post Commander Phil Wolford announces an important meeting of the Jimmie Geigas American Legion Post at the city hall next Monday night, October 16, at 8:00 o'clock. At this meeting the Legionnaires will make plans for their annual Armistice Day celebration here Saturday, November 11. They will give a program and in all probability will have another "Kangaroo Court" on the public square as they did last year, which proved so popular. A poppy sale will also be held for the benefit of disabled war veterans.

This is an annual celebration when ex-service men come together on Armistice Day to renew acquaintances and to associate with buddies with whom they served overseas.

The McKinney post is one of the most active in the state for its size. They hold regular meetings at the city hall and do many worthwhile things for the benefit of the city and county. Phil Wolford is making an excellent Post Commander of this wideawake group of Legionnaires and is hopeful of one of the best attended meetings of the year next Monday night and is anxious for a large turnout of members.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hall spent the week-end in San Antonio as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hall. Mrs. Cecil Hall returned to McKinney with them for a few days' visit with relatives.

LIONS WORKING HARD FOR GAME WITH GREENVILLE

HUNT COUNTY TEAM HAS EDGE OVER LOCAL ELEVEN

Although they are not "pointing" for the game, the McKinney High Lions are working hard this week to be in A-1 condition when they meet the Greenville High Lions at Greenville Friday night, October 13, in a non-conference battle. For over three years North Texas teams have been vainly trying to stop the onrushing Greenville lads who have twice reached the state semi-finals in the last two years and who have their hearts set on the state championship again this year. Their coach, Henry Frnka, a former Austin college star, has a well coached, well balanced club this season that has already knocked off Sunset, and Dallas Tech and tied Woodrow Wilson. Greenville is not expecting much from the Lions. However, a good game is promised.

Coaches Atkins and Hollis drilled their lads hard Mcnday and Tuesday in preparation for the game. It is expected that a large number of local fans will journey to Greenville for this game. The big McKinney line is due to come in for lots of work this week as they prepare to meet an even bigger Greenville line.

Tickets to the game will be priced at 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

Prof. Ralph E. Frazier, director of the McKinney High school band, will take the band along to play during the contest.

T. W. Howard and Miss Daisy Lee Eads, both of near Farmersville, were married at the home of Rev. J. Ben Snider Tuesday at 3:00 o'clock, Rev. Snider officiating. They will continue to make their home east of Farmersville.

Willie Bob Saunders and family have moved back to Collin county from Clegg, Live Oak county, South Texas, where he owns a good farm. However, he and his family are visiting at the present in West Texas. We hope he will find a good farm for rent and permanently locate in our county again. He formerly lived in the Chambersville community on Prof. W. S. Smith's farm for a number of years. He bought raw land in South Texas and cleared up his farm which he has rented out. Mrs. Saunders was formerly Miss Marshall, daughter of the late E. A. Marshall of Weston.

Mrs. Shuler Moore has resumed her duties as saleslady at the Chicago store after being out a day or two on account of illness.

E. B. Ball has bought a nice home at 806 South Wilcox street from the McKinney Realty Company. Mr. Ball is fortunate in owning a nice home in McKinney. Home owners are republic savers. We were pleased to do business with Mr. Ball.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1933.

Some people are always looking for something for nothing.

The Free Collin County Fair and Horse Show were a success. More power to those who put it over.

Mrs. Hattie Carraway, lone woman United States Senator, gets more mail from back home than any other senator so it is reported. She recently secured the appointment of a woman as Postmaster in her home city of Jonesboro, Arkansas.

As a means of relieving unemployment, public road work should be ordered for every community possible. The unemployed get more actual relief in building or improving good roads than in most any other character of relief activity. It is certainly a fact that the people of Texas get something back—value received in building good roads.

One of the most valuable civic organizations of our county is the McKinney Chamber of Commerce. Its capable officials, James H. Merritt, president, and W. Hammond Moore, secretary, are a hard working team. They get results—surprising results considering the modest budget provided them to work with.

According to Dr. W. A. Davis, director of Bureau of Vital Statistics, there were 61,260 persons who died in Texas last year. Heart disease claimed 7,251 of these lives. Other leading causes of death in their order of importance were pneumonia, tuberculosis, cerebral hemorrhage, cancer and accident. Prudence in diet and habits tend to strengthen health and keep down the death rate to the lowest level.

An event of outstanding interest in the civic and business life of Fristo, a little Southwest Collin village, is their annual Pure Food show sponsored every fall by the Methodist ladies. This year it was held under the presidency of Mrs. W. B. Staley. Among its features is a "Better Baby" contest, cooking contest and friendly rivalry of various food products aspiring for the favor of the buying public.

J. W. Underwood, of Denton, president of the Texas Jersey Cattle Club, was Jersey Cattle exhibit judge at our recent Collin county fair. Mr. Underwood has an outstanding herd of his own. The position he holds in the State Jersey organization speaks for itself relative to his popularity and high standing with the breeders of the state. He found a very creditable Jersey exhibit at our fair this year. He is a capable Judge and always conscientious in his awards.

Build Highways! The more concrete roads constructed the more progress, says the Valley Morning Star. The recent hurricane brought this forcibly to everyone's mind. Lest we forget, concrete roads save many lives. What if we didn't have such highways? The inaccessibility would have proven disastrous to those persons living in remote sections. Build more highways—and we add, build more concrete highways says the Star.

You can assist Texas by asking your physician whether or not he has had your baby's birth officially recorded with your local registrar of vital statistics. The local registrar is Justice of the Peace Erwin Craus at McKinney. Registration will be of great value to your child and will also help the state which is asking the Federal Bureau of Census to admit Texas to the Regiestration Area for Births. But, Texas in order to get this recognition, must register more than ninety per cent of her births.

A large part of the money which will go to saloons for beer, and beer taxation, will come out of the movie business . . . You and I have got to fight the return of the saloon as we would a pestilence . . . The saloon will not create one single new dollar of money. It will simply mean that the dollar which has been spent on the movies and on semiluxuries and even on necessities will be, in part, spent somewhere else. That part of it will be lost to you and me."—Carl Laemmle, President of the Universal Pictures Corporation.

McKinney Public Schools enjoy the utmost degree of confidence of our people as a whole. Their efficiency and harmonious cooperation are the subjects of remark by school people over the state. A supporting factor of much importance in this happy school situation is the cooperation on the part of its citizens. For instance, the Athletic Council, composed of ten or twelve citizens, gives enthusiastic support to high school athletics in a financial and moral way. Only the other day one of our foremost citizens and retired dry goods merchants, Vernie Graves, voluntarily turned a $25.00 check to the Athletic Council treasury as a substantial token of his appreciation of the city schools and as an encouragement to athletic activities.

On one occasion Henry Ford was asked if he didn't stand to lose much money if certain things should go wrong. Things go wrong he replied only when they are started with the wrong idea, but they'll always go right if the fundamental idea is right. "You must never let yourself think that you can fail," Ford said. "Our first principal is that failure is impossible. You may not get what you are trying to get the first time, the second or the tenth time—or even the twelfth time—but if you shut out of your mind the possibility of being licked, then you are bound to win." Mr. Ford added.

COLLIN-DENTON OFFICIALS AND CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS CONFER ABOUT HIGHWAY 24

County Judge J. Frank Harrington of this county and his four county commissioners, Messrs. Don O. Davis, J. Wilson Spain, A. N. Burton and Frank Kerby, had a joint meeting at 8:30 o'clock, Friday morning, in the county judge's office in the court house here with County Judge T. B. Davis of Denton county and his four county commissioners.

Meeting with these officials of Collin and Denton counties were the representatives of the Denton Chamber of Commerce, the McKinney Chamber of Commerce and the McKinney Junior Chamber of Commerce.

These officials and civic organizations of the two counties are all vitally interested in the building of highway No. 24 through Collin and Denton counties, the order to survey which was made on July 12 this year by the State Highway commission.

Both Judge Harrington and Judge Davis and also their commissioners' courts are vitally interested in getting the survey made without further delay and work started on building a standard, first-class hard-surfaced or concrete slab highway.

Judges Harrington and Davis are of the opinion that activity on this badly needed important east and west highway will soon commence.

The road now is built to Naples in East Texas from which place it will be extended eastward to Shreveport.

The gap through a large portion of Collin, Denton and Wise counties will be closed up, according to Judge Harrington without much further delay.

This highway is regarded second only in importance to the Bankhead highway among all east and west highways in Texas. Collin badly needs this road and its starting would afford lots of labor to the unemployed.

OLD TENNESSEE NEIGHBORS MEET ON STREETS HERE

While in conversation Friday with our friend, C. N. Roberson, who has lived for sixteen years on the farm of Judge H. L. Davis on the pike eight miles southwest of McKinney, he stated that he is picking an exceptionally good cotton crop this year. He only has in sixty-five acres but has out already forty bales and expects to get fifteen or sixteen more yet. However, his corn was almost a failure this year. Mr. Roberson was born near Hartsville, in Trousdale County, Tennessee, but left there in 1885. He has never visited back in his native state but a couple of times since he first left and says that the country and the people too have changed up so much since he was a young man that he doesn't care any more about going back. While a representative of this paper was talking to him, our mutual friend, Walter W. Crenshaw came along. He, too, was born in the same community of the same county in Tennessee as was Mr. Roberson. In fact, their families lived on adjoining farms. Consequently, they have been lifelong friends. Mr. Roberson is a few years older than Mr. Crenshaw. Mr. Roberson states that Mr. Crenshaw's father was an original race horse breeder of Tennessee. He was a small man and unlike his son here in Texas, who weights, perhaps 180 pounds, or more. The senior Crenshaw was one of the best riders, Mr. Roberson states, that he ever knew. When Mr. Roberson was a youth he remembers that the senior Crenshaw sold a young mare in that early day for $1100. Mr. Crenshaw of this city has two brothers back there who are now prominent in the state as fine horse breeders. W. W. Crenshaw's granddaughter, Miss Kitty Beth Edwards, of this city, has painted one of the fine trotting horses owned by her uncles in Tennessee. This painting was recently exhibited in the Art Department of the Collin County Fair where it was admired by many visitors.

Jimmie Dale, well known transfer man, is carrying his right hand in a sling, from a case of blood poison. While working a few days ago, Mr. Dale accidentally cut his right hand. He states that the wound has been very painful. However, he is getting better, which is delightful news to his many friends.

FUNERAL HELD FOR THE LATE MRS. BRANTLEY

BURIAL FOLLOWED IN GROVE HILL CEMETERY DALLAS

Funeral services for Mrs. C. M. Brantley, aged sister of Mrs. J. R. Padgitt at whose home she died suddenly about 9:00 o'clock Monday morning, October 9, were held at 2:00 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon in the chapel of the Sam J. Massie & Son Funeral home. Services were conducted by her pastor, Dr. Claude M. Simpson, of the First Methodist church. The body was then conveyed to Grove Hill cemetery, Dallas, where it was laid to rest beside the grave of her husband, an old McKinney contractor and builder, who died at the Padgitt home in McKinney, August 2, 1930.

Miss Mattie Lou Marshall was born in Houston county, Georgia. When a little child, her parents moved to Wilson county, Tennessee. Her parents were Edwin and Martha Marshall. She was married in Tennessee in January, 1884, near Lebanon, that state. As a bride, she and her young husband came immediately to Texas and settled in McKinney which continued to be their home the remainder of their lives. While they had no children of their own, both she and her husband loved children dearly and befriended many of them. She was a lifelong Methodist, and was a woman of modest, retiring disposition, a devoted wife and a sympathetic neighbor. After the death of her husband she made her home with her sister.

She seemed as well as usual Sunday, doing household work and prepared the meals as usual as her sister, Mrs. Padgitt is very seriously ill. Early Monday morning, Mrs. Brantley took very ill and suddenly passed away in a few hours as above stated.

She is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Matt Marshall and R. L. Marshall, both of Nashville, Tennessee; W. T. Marshall of Lebanon, Tennessee; Mrs. Emma Talkington, widow of the late Mack Talkington, Vinson, Oklahoma; Mrs. Lucy Wylie and Mrs. Ella Puryear, both of Nashville, Tennessee; Mrs. J. R. Padgitt of McKinney, Texas, and Mrs. Emma Johnson of Neshville, Tennessee. Another brother, E. A. Marshall, was a well known farmer of Weston, about twelve miles northwest of McKinney, who died about a year ago. Her sister, Mrs. Lucy Wylie of Nashville, and her brother, W. T. Marshall of Lebanon, Tennessee, are both also very ill. Her brother, R. L. Marshall of Nashville, arrived in McKinney Tuesday to attend the funeral.

Mrs. A. D. Hope, wife of a prominent McKinney hardware and furniture merchant, had a pretty night blooming cereus, a very rare flower of the cactus family open early Monday morning, which was admired by several of her neighbors. It was of a rich cream color. Mrs. Hope got her cereus plant from a cutting from Dr. Jas. A. Caldwell who has several of them. Mrs. Hope's cereus has grown from a cutting or leaf from a stalk or a plant in the yard of Dr. Caldwell's sanitarium. It is a semi-tropical plant which has to be carefully protected against freezing during the winter weather in this section of the state. They bloom once a year and only in the nighttime and then the bloom is open for only three or four hours.

HUGE SWEET POTATO GREW IN EAST COLLIN

SHOWN HERE BY W. H. LENTZ JR. OF CLIMAX COMMUNITY

This office received a welcome visit Wednesday from W. H. Lentz, Jr., of the Climax community, who brought in a huge sweet potato grown on their farm, weighing four pounds and 13 ounces, which he graciously offered to the writer, and which we gladly accepted. This young man is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lentz, Sr., formerly of McKinney, but who now reside on the farm of C. S. Chafin, of Altoga.

In addition to their regular sweet potato patch, three or four vines grew in some new ground, which were neither hoed nor plowed. This large potato and others grew in this particular spot. They believe in diversification and in addition to their cotton crop this year, have a variety of farm and garden products growing on their farm.

W. H., Jr., also showed us a freak potato growth in which two potatoes had grown crosswise, giving the appearance of a man, showing plainly his head, arms and body.

W. H. Lentz, Jr., and his younger brother, Robert, during their residence in McKinney were carrier boys for the Daily Courier-Gazette. The entire Lentz family have many friends residing here.

TAX COLLECTOR READY WILL MAIL TAX STATEMENTS

Owing to the large number of inquiries of people who desire to pay their 1933 tax or know the amount thereof, Tax Collector N. D. Ready said Thursday that the Assessor's roll is not yet completed and, according to legal rulings, the Collector has no authority to issue receipts until said roll is completed and approved.

"As soon as the roll is approved the public will be notified through the press, and this office will begin immediately to mail out tax statements, which will be carbon copies of the receipts, and which will also have poll tax order blanks on the back thereof," Collector Ready said.

Collector Ready especially requests that each taxpayer study these notices and if road or school district, valuation, description of property or otherwise is incorrect in any way, the same should be reported early so that any correction that is to be made may have the proper attention before payment is made.

"I assure the public that it is the policy of this office to cooperate with you in every way to the end that all payments shall be fair and correct as to your assessment," Mr. Ready explained.

The tax collector also stresses the importance of filling out the poll tax order, being careful to give correct voting box, age, occupation, etc. The tax collector's office is not permitted to issue property tax receipts where poll tax is charged without poll tax being paid or legal exemption given. If the poll tax is assessed and not due, then legal exemption may be given and credit received as if the poll tax were

YOUR HOME TOWN

SEEN HERE AND THERE.

That was an enjoyable Lions club luncheon today noon at the First Methodist church when Col. W. E. (Bill) Easterwood of Dallas was the speaker . . . County Judge J. Frank Harrington has been made court of honor chairman of the County Boy Scout organization; Assistant County Attorney Leon O. Moses is another new member . . . What a lazy feeling we have when a slow drizzle begins to patter down . . . Billy Glen Thompson, young McKinney High football hopeful, was glad of Wednesday morning's rain; he said the ground would be much softer to fall on this afternoon in grid workout . . . Those Jaycees are really in earnest about organization of a drum and bugle corps; T. W. Franklin is drum major . . . N. A. Burton and Editor F. C. Thompson holding a conversation . . . Shirley Taylor of Melissa, Malcolm Walters, and 'Sailor' Thompson enjoying morning refreshments . . . Carl McDonald enjoying a brisk walk around town this morning.

MORE COTTON CHECKS

From the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman there comes an interesting story from a Washington visitor, who recently visited in the government buildings, where employes were mailing out cotton plow-up checks. Because it is so interesting, we're going to let you read the story, just as the observer wrote it. Here it is:

"For two hours or more the other day I watched the vast organization at work which is making out checks for farmers who plowed up cotton.

"In one room 400 men and women check the different reports, adding up figures, making out lists of names. They work with feverish haste for eight hours. Then another 400 take their places, followed by a third group. Each day of 24 hours, 1,200 men and women toil in that room. Work continues right through Sunday.

"Other groups in adjoining rooms operate highly intricate machines that make card records of each man's name, state, county, acreage, amount due and names of lien holders. At the end of the line are two check signing machines, each capable of signing 2,000 checks an hour.

"As I write this, September 23, the work still drags. Up to last night 240,000 checks had been made out. They are turning out less than 30,000 daily. That leaves 750,000 more to handle.

Officials state they will be "up to 40,000 a day in a few days." Such hopes have been expressed repeatedly. If they realize their hopes, all checks will be mailed out by October 15. But if delays continue, as they have to date, it will be the first of November before all are sent out.

"Complaints from all parts of the south roll in here. Many of them are bitter. The pressure put on those doing the work or getting the checks cut has been tremendous. Yet, I feel they have done all they could. They worked on nerve, and pushed the group of over 1,500 clerks to the limit of the human machine.

"A complete new organization had to be built up. Even space for the workers had to be provided, and the workers themselves hired. It was a job that ordinarily would take a year. But it will be finished in three months or less.

"The root of the trouble lies in the promise made during the campaign. One group conducted the campaign; another has the job of getting out the checks. One promised more than the other could perform.

"Now that the organization has been built up, and most of the kinks ironed out, it is felt that no such delays can occur in the making out of checks to wheat farmers."

To us, the foregoing paragraph is highly interesting and gives us a picture of the huge part the government is playing in the recovery drive of our great nation. Collin county, with almost a half million dollars in plow-up checks already received, can appreciate such information, for the plan of the Federal government to cut down on the acreage this year has proved valuable to farmers in all directions from McKinney.

OCTOBER

Here's a bit of verse we picked up somewhere, on October, very timely, now that this autumnal month is with us:

'Days are gettin' shorter an' the air a keener snap;
Apples now are droppin' into Mother Nature's lap;
The mist at dusk is risin' over valley, marsh and fen
Ah, it's just as plain as sunshine, winter's comin' on again."

PUMPKIN PIE

Coming of fall and winter reminds us that pumpkins should soon be coming on the market, and if there's anything we like better than pumpkin pie, it is two pumpkin pies! This pie deli-

FRISCO AND NEVADA TO PLAY IN M'KINNEY

Coach Don Helms' Frisco Coons showed a complete reversal of form Friday afternoon in swamping the Princeton football team, 29-0. The Frisco eleven was superior in every department of play.

Last week the Coons bowed to the St. Joseph's Bears by a top-heavy score, but this week's game indicates that the Blue and Gold are in for a good season.

Although hampered by injuries the Coons display a smooth running attack with Carter, Hill, Reed and Yeatts reeling off some nice gains. Yeatts' passing, punting and off tackle thrusts kept the Panthers in hot water all afternoon.

Duncan, Johnson, Rasor and Co-Captains Rosamond and Carpenter deserve mentioning for their staunch defensive work.

Crosswhite and Toombs starred for the Sonntag coached gridsters. This week the Frisco lads play the Powerful Carrollton Loboes at Carrollton and on October 21 they meet the Nevada Bears at McKinney in their annual night contest under the floodlights at Newsome Field.

CHAMBERSVILLE
BY MRS. O. SCOTT

The bereaved ones have the deepest sympathy in their sorrow.

Interment was made in the Melissa cemetery by the side of his son. The grave was covered with beautiful floral offerings, attesting the love and esteem in which he was held.

Active pallbearers were: A. L. Burnside, O. S. Scott, J. J. Allen, F. H. Priest, J. T. Burton, J. R. Frisby. Honorary pallbearers were his many friends.

The C. C. Harris Funeral home was in charge of funeral arrangements, as friends viewed for the last time the body it seemed that death smoothed the face of all trace of suffering and he was peacefully sleeping.

A quartet composed of Clarence Cox, Mrs. F. W. Thompson, Raymond Dickerson and Albert Dickerson sang two of his favorite songs "Sometime We Will Understand," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The deceased came to Texas in 1906 and bought the Kendall farm near Chambersville, where he engaged in stock raising and farming until his health began to fail. He was a life long member of Masonic lodge. He is survived by two brothers, J. D. Mell of Santa Fe, New Mexico; F. G. Mell of San Jose, Ill.; and one sister, Mrs. F. S. Baldwin, of Berkley, Calif.

Funeral services were held at the family residence Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Guy F. Jones of Dallas. A warm personal friend of the family assisted by Rev. Thomas Sterck of Anna in the presence of a large concourse of friends and loved ones gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased.

The deceased was ever the friend of public education, as well as the friend of the church. All of his children have secured college and university educations. His character was remarkable for his integrity, strength of mind and never failing cheerfulness, always holding high his ideals, speaking fearlessly his convictions. He was an ardent champion of temperance, a relentless foe of evil and wrong doing, despising sham and hypocricy.

The term that best describes his life is devotion. Joe Mell was devoted to the highest ideals and this devotion was manifest in his every relationship. To his parents he was a devoted son, to his wife a devoted companion, to his children a devoted father, to his neighbors a devoted friend and to his community a devoted citizen. His life was an open book. He lived his religion and was ready for his Master's call to join his little son, Guy, whose name was on his lips as he fell asleep.

Bro. Jones touched the high points in the life of his friend. Joseph Leonard Mell was born in Mason City, Ill., August 25, 1869, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mell. He was a graduate of Illinois university. In early manhood he went to Abbott, Miss. On November 19, 1901, he was happily united in marriage to Miss Marie Ivy of West Point. The heartbroken widow survives. To this union were born four children: J. L. Mell, Jr., of Austin; C. I. Mell of Tulsa, Okla.; Miss Mildred Mell at home and Guy Mell, who preceded him in death six years ago. One grandchild, Nancy Jo Mell, survives.

Our community was bowed in sadness Thursday when the news quickly spread from home to home announcing the passing of J. L. Mell, one of our most prominent citizens, neighbor and friend, which sad event occurred at 11:45 p. m. Wednesday, after an illness extending over a period of months. He had been critically ill the past several weeks of heart trouble and other complications, but the skill of able physicians together with all that could be done by the loving hearts and tender hands of the devoted wife, sons and daugater could not avail in saving his precious life, which ebbed peacefully out at the above stated hour, on the vast ocean of eternity, where human suffering, sorrow and heartaches at parting are known no more.

J. A. Neel, veteran paperhanger and painter of this city, was 79 years old on April 13, having been born at Troy, in Madison county, Illinois, April 13, 1856, but he was reared in Christian county Illinois. When twenty-three years old, he came to McKinney in 1879 and has lived here for fifty-four years. He has prided himself in his work as a contractor which business he followed for fifty-seven years. He is now living with his children since the death of his good wife a few years ago.

RESIGNS POSITION GRAND ORATOR TEXAS MASONS

HALSELL S. DAVIS REGRETS NECESSITY GIVING UP HONOR

HALSELL S. DAVIS.

On account of business engagements, former District Clerk Halsell S. Davis, now with the Internal Revenue Service under Internal Revenue Collector W. A. Thomas of Dallas, finds it necessary to resign the position as Grand Orator of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Texas.

Mr. Davis, who is a native of Melissa, was only recently appointed to an important deputyship under Internal Revenue Collector Thomas and stationed at Lubbock to look after colecting processing taxes on wheat and cotton in a number of counties in that part of the state under the new Farm Recovery Act.

Mr. Davis was appointed to the position of Grand Orator by Judge Wallace Hughston of McKinney when the latter was elected Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas last December. Mr. Davis ably filled the position until he received the appointment from the Federal government that he finds now interferes and keeps him from discharging the duties of the fraternal honor any longer.

With his public announcement of resignation, Mr. Davis who is one of the brightest Masons of the state, says, "After having been a careful student of Masonic procedure for the past seven years I find that Judge Hughston's acts and decisions in dealing with the many problems that have confronted the Grand Jurisdiction of Texas mark him as one of the leading Grand Masters of all time. I regret that matters beyond my control make it impossible for me to longer continue with this outstanding administration of Grand Master Hughston."

LOCAL HORSE LOVERS ATTEND SHERMAN SHOW

A large number of McKinney and Collin county horse fanciers and lovers attended the Sherman horse show Tuesday and Wednesday nights, October 3 and 4. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bass and daughter, Poppy; Mr. and Mrs. Tom M. Scott and daughter, Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scott, and daughter, Lura Lee; Miss Carrie Jean Davis, Lynn Bass Perry, Mrs. S. O. Hardy Ebbanks and Mrs. H. G. Corbett.

Lester Johnson of Ravia, Oklahoma, was the outstanding out-of-the county entrant in the show, winning the sweepstakes and many other prizes.

Ed Cashion, Collin county horse fancier, won fourth on "Midnight" in the Plantation Horse class, the animals ridden by their owners.

Miss Lura Lee Scott of McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scott, won second place in the Class to select the best woman rider, riding her own horse, "Dixie."

Miss Poppy Bass of McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bass, placed twice in the show. She won third riding "Joanna Jean" in the Junior Colt class and fourth riding "Cy" in the best woman rider class.

Mrs. Leo pillman has been informed that she won second prize in one of the Sanger Bros. (in Dallas) weekly contests, recently, as a reward, being forwarded a $5 check. She won second place, by making a selection of the most stylish shoes, according to her judgment, as made in a recent advertisement by that store. The winning of second place is a distinct compliment to Mrs. Spillman, in the excellence of her taste in judging the latest styles. Her entry was one of several hundred, only six being awarded the prizes.

J. H. Huguely of Allen, has entered the City hospital here for a course of treatment.

Judge E. W. Merritt has returned home from a business trip to [illegible] and other towns in [illegible] part of the state.

MELISSA MAN OFFERS TO SELL CHOICE JERSEY

Shirley Taylor of Melissa was a business caller at our office Thursday afternoon, leaving a couple of classified advertisements for the columns of the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette. He is advertising a choice, young eighteen-months-old Jersey bull for sale at a real bargain. It is a highly bred registered animal, and would make a very desirable sire to head any herd. On account of it being closely kin to the rest of Mr. Taylor's herd, he cannot use him and therefore is offering him for an unusually low price considering the individual, the breeding and the type of this pretty young animal. Mr. Taylor also left an ad stating that he wanted to buy 500 feet of one-inch or an inch-and-quarter pipe. Mr. Taylor has been working for the government during the cotton plow-up campaign of the past summer and is now in Federal employment in the government wheat reduction campaign that is on. He and W. M. Gibson are the committee in the wheat reduction campaign for the Melissa section of our county.

COUNTY WHEAT REDUCTION COMM. HOLDS MEETING

A splendid meeting of the Collin County Wheat Reduction Allotment Committee and the community wheat reduction committee was held in McKinney Wednesday night, with County Farm Agent Jack P. McCullough presiding. Much important business was discussed and plans for the successful carrying through of the wheat reduction plan of the Federal government were made.

E. A. Miller, member of the Extension Service of A. & M., at College Station, was present and made a splendid address to the committeemen, stressing the wheat reduction plan and explaining it to those present.

A county organization was set up with E. H. Bush of McKinney, Route 2, as secretary-treasurer. The budget for the year was also set.

County Agent McCullough is anxious that each wheat grower in the county, who has not already done so, get in touch with one of the community committeemen immediately and arrange to plow up at least a part of his crop. It is necessary that these committeemen know immediately who is going to plow up the crop and how much each grower will turn under.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mouzon, Sr., of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Mouzon, Jr., of Greenville, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Isham Younger, concrete specialist, has just completed some extensive concrete work at the home of Gibson Caldwell on College street.

BROKEN LEG S. H. TAYLOR IS IMPROVING

Simon H. Taylor of Melissa was in McKinney yesterday greeting his many friends. The doctor removed the cast from his broken leg this week and says the member is knitting together as nicely as ever seen. Mr. Taylor was mowing weeds fifty days ago on his farm when his team ran away. The team didn't get loose from him, but after he stopped it, he discovered that his right leg was broken just above the ankle. It was done so quickly that he didn't realize when the injury was inflicted and didn't even know his leg was hurt until he tried to stand up on it after stopping his team. Mr. Taylor will get about some now by the aid of crutches, but says that he won't be able to kick off a football with the injured member perhaps during the remainder of the present season.

Mrs. Grover Burton left Monday for Camey in Denton county, to assume her duties as primary teacher in the public school there. Mrs. Burton is beginning her second year in the Camey school which is a four-teacher school. She is a most efficient and competent instructor, and is held in the highest regard by all her pupils, teachers and patrons of the school. Her husband is a young lawyer of McKinney, being a son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Burton.

James Doshier, two months old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Doshier of the Branch community died this (Monday) morning, at 3:00 o'clock after a brief illness. Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, burial following in the Forest Grove cemetery, with the Isaac Crouch Funeral home in charge of burial arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Layman and little daughters, Ina Ruth and Anna Louise, of Prosper, visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Watson, of 1107 North Sherman street Saturday.

PRINCETON LITTLE THEATER TO GIVE PLAY FRIDAY

"LOOKIN' LOVELY" TO BE PRESENTED TOMORROW NIGHT

The Princeton Little Theater will start its second season by presenting Janice Gard's "Lookin' Lovely," a comedy in three acts directed by Miss Charley Morrow of Princeton, on Friday night, October 13th, at the new gymnasium.

This extraordinarily gay farce is as new and smart and frivolous as the latest Paris hat and as old in appeal as love and laughter. The parts are excellent in their distribution and appeal, and woven into the play are various romances and absurd complications.

This interesting play is supported by a cast as follows: Mrs. Charles Akin, Miss Mary Lou Stewart, Mrs. Ike Griffin, Mrs. Wilbur Wilson, Miss Evelyin Miller, Messrs. Gerald Sontague, Fred Johnson, Curtis Campbell, Claude Raymond Houser, Willard Morrow, and two children, Nadine Johnston and Tommy Boorman.

Mrs. Jas. S. Forsyth sustained a sprained wrist in a fall at the Russell Bros. big circus here Thursday evening, as she fell over a wire, while leaving the grounds. Although the injury was not serious, it was most painful. She is recovering from same nicely.

CHARGES ROBBERY WITH FIREARMS FILED HERE

Sam Payne, one of the two negroes implicated in the shooting of Robert Snorgrass near Rhea Mills about a week ago has been lodged in the Collin county jail in this city by Deputy Sheriffs Arbie Sparlin and Geo. Eubanks, who went up to Madill Monday, where Payne was being held by Oklahoma authorities.

Following a description of the negro a few days ago, Oklahoma authorities, on the lookout for him, received a tip he was in the railroad yards, armed with a .45 calibre revolver, waiting to catch a freight out of that place.

About 3 a. m. Monday, after learning this information, Oklahoma authorities secured the services of an engineer, riding with him on a switch engine through the yards, and jumping off where the negro was hiding, covering him before he knew what was taking place. The Madill officials were armed with sawed-off shotguns.

Another negro, Clinton James Stevens, likewise implicated in the shooting, is also in jail here facing the same charge, that of robbing with firearms.

The negroes who had been picking cotton for a Mr. Layman at Rhea Mills were going to Celina with Mr. Snorgrass and Guy Cnstott, both of Achilles, Oklahoma, Jewel Washburn of near Celina and another man. The car stalled and the men attempted to shove it down the road. It is alleged that at this point one of the negroes commanded "Hands up" to the four white men at the point of a .45 calibre pistol and when Snorgrass refused to comply with the command was shot through the right chest. He is recovering in the city hospital now.

Stevens was picked up in Hugo, Oklahoma, and brought here by Deputy Sheriffs Sparlin and Eubans who, as above stated, later went back to Madill to get Payne.

COLLIN COUNTY B. T. S. MEETS

The Collin County B. T. S. met on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Walter Howell was guest speaker for the afternoon and gave a very inspiring and interesting talk.

A splendid representation from all the churches of the county was present. The Celina Baptist church having the largest attendance won the loving cup.

Prof. Elborn Gantt of Princeton was an interested spectator at the McKinney-Farmersville football game here Friday night. Prof. Gantt is superintendent of the Princeton school.

M'KINNEY CITY HOSPITAL IS ON APPROVED LIST

The McKinney City hospital appears on an approved list of Texas hospitals, as announced by the sixteenth annual Hospital Standardization Conference of the American College of Surgeons, of Chicago.

This annual list of approved hospitals is of important value to the prospective patient when choosing a hospital; to the prospective student of nursing and the recently graduated physician. In other words, the hospital must be of an approved standard to be on this list. The American College of Surgeons is an organization representing more than ten thousand leading surgeons of the United States, Canada and other countries.

The McKinney City hospital has a forty-bed capacity, and is a creditable structure of the kind.

This prideful local institution is capably managed by Miss A. B. Smith, superintendent, who is assisted by Miss C. S. McLeod, anaesthetist; Miss Belle Stinson supervisor of operating room; Miss Jessie Latham, instructor of nursing; Miss Della Russell, night supervisor; Metz Washburn, X-ray technician; Mrs. Etta Daly, laboratory technician, and a corps of eleven student nurses.

Erected In 1921.

The institution was erected here in 1921, and since 1924 has maintained such high standard as to remain on the approved list of standardized hospitals of the nation. Miss Smith has been here for many years, and has given most satisfactory service, being efficient and competent in managing the affairs of this humanitarian institution.

Board of Governors.

The Board of Governors is composed of Tom M. Scott, president; W. T. Oglesby, Sims Cameron, J. E. Gibson, Wallace C. Wilson, T. E. Craig and Ed Dowell.

The School of Nursing has graduated many young ladies, most of whom are now holding responsible positions with some of the larger hospitals of the country.

The hospital building and Nurses Home are two of the most substantial buildings in this section surrounded with spacious and well kept grounds, that have been landscaped with shrubs, trees and flowers.

Cleon Bullock, residing on Route 1, Royse City, continues ill in the City hospital, where he has been a patient the past month. He sustained a broken back and other injuries when a team ran away with him, dragging him between a load of hay and the barn door. He continues about the same.

M'KINNEY HI LIONS DEFEAT FARMERSVILLE

BY DON W. BAGWILL

Unleashing a powerful running, passing and plunging attack in the second half, the McKinney High Lions ran roughshod over the fighting Farmersville High Farmers in a fast game played on Newsome Field in McKinney Friday night. The final score was 26-6 in favor of the Lions.

Incidentally it was McKinney's first football victory since their first game in September, 1932, when they defeated the Plano Wildcats, 12-0. It will be remembered that in the second game last season, Farmersville came over and defeated the Lions, 7-6, in a hardfought battle, putting a jinx on the Lions who failed to win another game the entire season. That jinx was broken here Friday night in a most decisive and unmistakable manner.

52-Yard Run.

McKinney's final score came late in the fourth quarter when, with the ball on their own 36-yard line, Hale attempted a long pass to Skinner, which was intercepted by Wheatley, who ran 52 yards for the final score with almost the entire McKinney team running interference.
